The Prez's Point by Mary Ellen Martelli-Wenstrom

I write this month's article as I have just finished packing for the Okemo trip that leaves in just a few short hours. It got me to thinking about other trips I have taken in the past 10 years with the club, and especially my very first trip to Killington. I remember getting on the bus of some 50 people and only knowing 1 person. That all changed by the time we had reached New York.

In the days that followed I had skied, had a drink or 2, dined or hung out with most in the group. On the way back, it was like traveling with a big group of old friends.

I recall the next year, running a trip to Placid and having 2 "first timers" on the trip - very cool young couple - now known to all as "Jeff & Jean". I remember bonding with them on the bus trip over some very good tequila ☺ . It was their wedding anniversary that weekend - 11 years I believe. Wow - how time flies!

So many wonderful trips throughout the years. And it's funny that some 10 years later I still get excited to be "getting on the bus". Getting my gear together, prepping all the requirements, snacks & adult beverages. And now, though I know so many who will be joining us later on the bus, I also know there are new friends that will be on the bus tonight. New friends I just haven't met. Yet.

That's one of the things I love most about SJSC.

See ya on the slopes...or in the lodge ☺ .

Cent Anni !!

Survey Says...

That's right, it's time for feedback. The ski committee will be posting a survey online, by the beginning of February, to assist us in future trip planning. Watch the weekly Avalanche email alerts to see when it's posted and then "have at it!" Trip planning is a critical task and we want to create the most desirable schedule for our members, but in order to do that we need your help. Whether you're a weekend only person or a die-hard extended trip participant - help us by completing the survey once it is posted. Thanks in advance for doing so.

We Appreciate Your Participation

We know you have choices when it comes time to ski. You can use the internet and plan trips on your own or go with other groups or clubs. We want to take this opportunity to say thank you for skiing with this club. We're glad you chose to ski with us. We appreciate your participation and we hope to see you on trips and at club events moving forward. We also offer an opportunity to be involved at a real grass roots level if you're so inclined. Club committees are always looking for new ideas and a helping hand to continue offering our friendly fare to like-minded people. Shoot an email www.sjskiclub.com/AboutUs.htm#board or make a call to anyone on the board or a committee and we'll point you to the right person.

Mid Week Trip Canceled

In a word (...or four) "We don't get it". Trips filled and we responded to your requests to add to the schedule. We asked at meeting who would be interested in a mid-week drive up trip and when we put a fantastic package together for you. Not sure where we went wrong, but due to lack of sign-ups, the Killington Mid-week drive-up has been canceled. This is a good opportunity for us to make another appeal for you to complete our ski survey so we can hit the bull's eye next time around and provide the type of trips you're really looking for.

NASTAR

You don't have to be good; you just have to run the course. SJSC has a Nastar team. Any time you sign up and run a Nastar course, the club earns a point. If you do well on the course - better yet, the club earns even more points and you can earn spiffy looking medals that can spruce up any ski outfit. See Jeff Hayfield for details. Prior to the Okemo trip (when a large contingent was scheduled to race) the club was ranked 99 of 1168. Not bad for a club that has its home base at sea level

Hurry Up - It's Almost Done

I can't believe I am writing that the ski season is on the ebb. Seems like just yesterday I was getting you all pumped for the season opener and here I am reminding you to grab one of the remaining seats in the twilight of the season.

See if you can squeeze on Killington and talk to Dale about the Italy trip. There are still seats open on Park City, but keep in mind we have commitment dates when we have to either pay for empty seats or turn them back, and guess which way we go with that! So if one of those seats is calling - now is the time to act! Once we give up seats we cannot retrieve them, or if we can they will have increased in price.

Why Stowe?

- ❖ Why Stowe? It's the second week of December.
- ❖ Why not? For 3 consecutive years the entire mountain has been open and this year 39 trails were open with fresh snow on Sunday.
- ❖ Why, because you get to eat some great food and socialize at the tailgate party before.
- ❖ Why did the ice bucket (aka trash can) decide to spend the weekend at the rest stop only to be picked up on the way home?
- ❖ Why did Lisa and Brian decide that the back of the bus was the perfect place to celebrate their wedding anniversary?
- ❖ Why did Eileen spend too much time on her knees on the bus and why was she all wet?
- ❖ Why was a reindeer with a lazy ear allowed on the bus?
- ❖ Why did some folks fly to the lodge? Was it to get there early so they could climb over paint cans and ladders just to get to their room?
- ❖ Why did the cans and ladders magically disappear when we got there? To make room for cookies, cream puffs, and hot cider.
- ❖ Why did Diane go searching for the ice machine? Why, to find the paint cans, of course.
- ❖ Why did Dave and Chris search for the TV room? Why, to find all the ladders and tools.
- ❖ Why was Chip on all fours scratching like a dog? Was he trying to impress Tamika, Irena, Michelle, Kim, Caitlin, Traci, and Heather during a fun filled game of Pantini?
- ❖ Why did Kaye and John demo rockers? Was it to see how much snow they could eat on one long run down the mountain?
- ❖ Why did Tammy have such a hard time following Jackie and John down the mountain? Was it the 2 skiers that clobbered her at the same time half way down the mountain?
- ❖ Why were Jess, Kai, Kaye, and John disappointed? The burger and beer special for $10 was discontinued.
- ❖ Why did the bus stop half way to the mountain each day? Why couldn't Paul just cross country ski to the cross country ski trail?
- ❖ Why didn't Bud drop his pole? Why, because he wanted sympathy for his injury from Kathy.
- ❖ Why did you hear bump, bump, bang under the gondola all day Sunday? It was Jason, Mandy, and Dave snowboarding by rail in the fog.
- ❖ Why did Michelle and Kim ride the lift down the mountain? Perhaps, wind driven ice pellets in the eyes and white out conditions at the top was not their idea of a good time.
- ❖ Why did Terry, John, Tony, and Jackie chant "2 runs and a beer"? Because they liked wind blown ice pellets in their eyes and white out conditions followed by a cold one.

Why did 51 people cram into the bus to Stowe?

Why, to have a rip roaring good time!

We would like to thank all the folks on this trip for making it one of the most enjoyable Stowe trips ever. Why not let the fun continue next year! See you then,

John and Jackie (aka Sno Goddess)

SJSC Keystone Colorado Early Season December 8th to the 13th

For anyone that is on the fence about signing up for a Western trip this year...don't wait a minute longer! If the early season trip to Keystone Colorado is any indication – 2010/2011 is going to be a banner year for lots and lots (feet, to be specific) of sweet powder!

The group that went to Keystone in December was blessed with well over a foot of fresh powder for our four days of skiing. No goggle suntans for our group!

Our first full day came after a pretty uneventful trip out...there were just a few minutes of that queasy feeling when everyone else has their stuff from the luggage carousel....and you are still missing the ski's or board. But, no worries, everyone gathered up their stuff and off we went!

On the first day, the group took the short walk to the Gondola at Keystone and checked out the mountain. Most of the skier's and boarders took advantage of a complimentary lesson at Keystone and started out their season with some great pointers – one of the best was to watch out for stationary objects when skiing! After a great day on the mountain, some of the group attended a complimentary wine tasting at Keystone Lodge, some checked out the village's local dining/drinking establishments. The outdoor hot tubs beckoned and everyone had big smiles as we ended our first ski day for the season.

For day two, the group headed off to A – Basin. It snowed nonstop that day as we explored the terrain. We'd heard a rumor about live music, great tacos and cheap margarita's for après' ski that day that turned out to be 100% correct. It was a great way to wind down from day two as we headed off to relax with a few more libations and dinner at the local spots. It was an early evening for many as over a foot of fresh powder was waiting for us the next day! There was so much snow that I-70 was closed for several hours that night....that is a real snow storm!

Day three brought more snow and howling wind....enough to send some powder hounds back to the couch for awhile. Some of the group braved the weather and took off for Breckenridge, some waited till it warmed up to go to Keystone. The sun came out for awhile that day ...letting us finally see what we were skiing with beautiful blue sky and caches of deep powder.

Sunday was only half that...there was no sun to be found but the powder was incredible. One group went back to A Basin and enjoyed it till the last lift ran. Others went back to Keystone and skied big soft bumps, trees and long runs of sweet powder. Our last night was spent having a great dinner and watching the Eagles beat the Cowboys. It was a wonderful way to end four days of incredible powder.

I wish I had some good stories to tell about our outrageous antics but you know that saying....what happens in Keystone stays in Keystone...
