SJSC presents Three Forts Ferry Tour

Visit Fort Delaware, the Union fortress dating back to 1859, once housed Confederate prisoners of war as well as German POW's from WWII. It was originally built to protect the ports of Wilmington and Philadelphia. Step back in time as costumed interpreters take you back to the summer of 1864. We take the ferry over to the forts. We will have lunch at Crabby Dick's in Delaware City by the water.

Explore Delaware City, Fort Mott, Finns Point, and Fort Delaware/Pea Patch Island the Forts Ferry Crossing service on the Delaware River connects Delaware City to Pea Patch Island, home of historic Fort Delaware and the Pea Patch Island Nature Reserve, as well as Fort Mott in New Jersey. Finns Point National Cemetery is located near Fort Mott.
